

James Oatley TIC TOK WINES...

Bob Oatley's heritage goes back to the early days of the convict settlement in Sydney. Bob is a fifth generation Australian – a direct descendant of the convict, James Oatley - a clockmaker who was found guilty of stealing bed linen and transported to Australia. He arrived in Sydney in 1815 just 27 years after the first fleet had sailed into Sydney Harbour. James Oatley's talents as a clockmaker were quickly recognised in the colony and he soon became its most highly regarded clock and watch maker. Officially pardoned in 1821 he was appointed Keeper of the Town Hall Clock by Governor Macquarie. His lovely Long Case Clocks were purchased by prosperous and prominent colonial citizens, with fewer than two dozen still in existence. They trade on the antique market today for up to $500,000, but only rarely.

Bob Oatley has crafted JAMES OATLEY TIC TOK as a tribute to his great great grandfather – wines that reflect this proud Australian family's passion for achieving the highest quality in the pursuit of excellence.

TIC TOK CHARDONNAY

Fruit and texture are the vital components, with oak playing a supporting role. Lovely pineapple and fresh fig flavours, creamy, spicy oak with a touch of vanilla and a long, textured finish.

TIC TOK SAUVIGNON BLANC

A very pale appearance and zesty tropical fruits with just a hint of grassy, herbal notes and zippy acidity. It has a lovely mouthfeel and great length of flavour.

TIC TOK SHIRAZ

Ripe, rich fruitcake aromas along with some spicy characters. Generous in the mouth, the red berry fruits give way to nutmeg, mocca and dark chocolate notes, rounded tannins and a firm finish.

TIC TOK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Generous 'forest fruits' – ripe red berries to the fore, layered yet soft tannins and a lovely crisp, fresh finish that leaves you wanting for more.
